Visit of probationers from the Foreign Service Academy

A group of 19 probationers of the Foreign Service Academy, Islamabad visited the Institute of Regional Studies(IRS) on 6th November.

They were provided an in-depth briefing on the working of the IRS. They interacted freely with the Researchers for over ninety minutes and engaged in discussions on subjects of regional and global importance including Kashmir and Afghanistan.

Speaking on the occasion, President IRS Ambassador Nadeem Riyaz highlighted the future plans of the institute. He emphasized the importance of unbiased research, international and domestic collaborations and the necessity of providing policy inputs in today's challenging times.

The probationers were provided a detailed tour of the facility and were served refreshments.
