

Mr. Syed Imran Sardar is a Research Analyst at the Institute of Regional Studies. He joined the institute back in 2007 and has authored several articles on regional conflicts and human security issues. He has also authored a book on Conflict Transformation between India and Pakistan: A New Approach. Mr. Sardar has taught Area Study courses at National University of Modern Languages. He also provides research guides and trainings at the institute. His research work has been cited and indexed nationally & internationally. He also contributes in the Daily Times, The News, The Pulse and others.

Qualification

M.Phil. (International Relations) - Quaid-i-Azam University, Islamabad
M.A (IR) - The Islamia University of Bahawalpur, (Gold Medalist)
Fellowship- Gansu International Fellowship, Lanzhou University, China

Books

Conflict Transformation between India and Pakistan: A new Approach, Lambert Publishing Co, Germany

Specialization

Regional Conflicts, Human Security, South Asia

Publications - Journal

- How Did Sri Lanka go Bankrupt? Summer 2022
- Critical Discourse Analysis of Iran's Foreign Policy Behaviour After Us-Withdrawal from The JCPOA, Autumn 2021
- India: The Changing Security Environment and Regional Stability, Spring 2021
- Big Brother Syndrome and Nepal's Security Dilemma, Spring 2020
- Towards Achieving the SDG of Ending Poverty in South Asia: A Case Study of India and Pakistan, Summer 2017
- Drug Abuse: Global Vs South Asian Trends with special reference to India and Pakistan. 2016
- Challenging Goal of Halving Poverty by 2015: Where do India and Pakistan Stand?, 2014-15
- Trade Liberalization between India and Pakistan: Focusing Direct and Indirect Trade Barriers, Regional Studies, Winter 2013-14
- Looming Urban Sprawl and its Implications: An overview of South Asian Urbanization, Autumn 2012

- Analyzing US objectives in Afghanistan: Countering Terrorism to Promoting Democracy, (co-author), Winter 2011-12
- Good Governance: The Achilles' heel of South Asia; Is There a Way Forward? Vol. XXIX, No.4 Autumn 2011
- Conflict Transformation: A paradigm shift in Indo-Pakistan Conflict, Spring 2011.
- India: Towards achieving MDGs in Education, Summer 2010
- Poverty Alleviation in South: Towards a Holistic Approach, Regional Studies, Winter 2009-10
- Food Insecurity: A View from South Asia', Regional Studies, Summer 2009
- Conflict Transformation Approach and the Kashmir Issue: A new Perspective', Regional Studies, Autumn 2008
- Indian Experience of Globalization: An Overview, Regional Studies, Summer 2008

Publications - Spotlight

- Vandalising Gandhi's Statues: Is there really Something Wrong with Gandhi? December 2021
- End of Afghan Conflict? August 2021

Publications - Focus

Pakistan and the Carbon Challenge, July 2022

Contact

Twitter: @maan_sardar

LinkedIn : linkedin.com/in/imran-sardar-10841a38